

SG Consulting, Inc. was founded by Roberta Stathis and Patrice Gotsch, two women with a profound sense of awe for the role education plays in changing lives. The company founders have witnessed the transformative powers of education in their own lives and are committed to sharing the riches of education with today's students. The SGC scholarship fund is a tangible reflection of their optimism and commitment to the future.

ABOUT THE SGC SCHOLARSHIP

- Open to students of any age, preschool – university
- Record of service to education
- Preference is given to students involved in supporting K-12 educational publishing
- Two $250 awards are available annually; SGC reserves the right not to make any awards

Deadline for Application: May 1, 2007